- Who is the Alameda County DA and where do they stand on popular reforms?
 - What is our campaign?
 - Broad network of stakeholders: directly impacted and systems impacted youth and adults, legal professionals, researchers and academics, faith leaders, community organizers and activists
 - As many have mentioned, we're dedicated to the fight to end mass incarceration
 - There are so many ways to hold DAs accountable because they have so much power
 - We've advocated for positive policy updates related to respecting the rights to immigrant communities, as well as advocating for DAs to play as little as possible
 - Where is it now?
 - We are currently pushing for the Alameda County DAs office to implement AB 2942 to the use their power to resentence as many people as possible who are currently serving time in state prison
- Activity: EJ (SCREENSHARE)
